

Dear Chairman Powell:

Do not loosen the media ownership rules. Our country already has too much of our media owned by a small group of people. Your proposed changes will only make it worse! Our country relies on having a media containing many voices and many different owners. Do not help put our press in the hands of a few and in turn stifle our democracy.

Sincerely,
Brian Lavery